Maple

Maple is a finely grained, exceptionally hard wood species. Maple's natural colors range from creamy white to light blonde tones to dark reddish browns. As with other wood species, darker stains will reduce the natural wood color variation.

Maple Espresso

Distinct look. Darkest Finish. Gives finely grained Maple a furniture-like quality. A high-end rustic look on Oak.

Maple Auburn Glaze

Warm finish. Dramatic contrast. Deep brown glaze adds visual interest to a Cognac finish.

Maple Cognac

Copper tones. Stylishly flexible. Enhances Maple's fine grain with an elegant finish.

Maple Mocha Glaze

Rich patina. Crisp definition. Dark brown glaze on warm, Spice finished Maple.

Maple Spice

Light warm. Exceptionally versatile. Popular Maple and Cherry finishes complement any style. Enhances Hickory's dramatic color variations.

Maple Coffee Glaze

Natural tones. Dramatic contrast. A deep brown glaze enhances the warmth of a honey finish.

Maple Honey

Warm tones. Clean finish. Hint of color gives Maple a light, fresh look, and brings out Oak's signature grain.

Maple Natural

Light tones. Natural beauty. Designed to showcase Maple, Oak, and Hickory's true character.
